Midwest

Follow the rural roads through rolling farmlands. The down-to-earth flavor of the land is just ahead.

The easygoing, down-to-earth nature of the Midwest can win a place on'll in an afternoon. That can stretch longer, however, the wide-open horizons, dusty trees and lazy summer days of small town lemonade stands and sleepy farm roads are hard to leave, impossible to forget.

Corn comes in a variety of shapes and sizes, from sweet eaten on the cob to ornate fall decor.

Tall and hardy, sunflowers grow up to 15 feet. The seeds are a nutritious treat.
